MORNING EDITION.
TELEGRAPHIC NEWS
FROM NEW YORK.

A Serious Fire—The Edgar Stewart Pursued by the Tornado.
NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—Bradbury's piano manufactory, corner of Grand and Crosby streets, and W. H. Seymour & Sons, silk hat manufactory, adjoining on Crosby street, were burnearly this morning. Seymour & Sons' loss is estimated at $40,000 and Bradbury's $20,000. The loss on the buildings $20,000.

A Havana letter says that intelligence has reached there that the Edgar Stewart is fitting out for Cuban service. The Tornado has left port and it is generally reported that she has received orders to pursue the Stewart and to capture the vessel of the same character as the Virginia not to take her but to sink her.

THE SPANISH CIVIL WAR.
Destruction of an Insurgent Iron Clad.

MADRID, Jan. 2.—On Tuesday night a shell from the besieging batteries set fire to the Insurgents Iron Clad Petun, in the harbor of Cartagena, after burning for three hours the fire reached the magazine which exploded with tremendous force, damaging the vessel seriously.

FROM LONDON.
Drowning of Ashantes—Journalist Dead.

LONDON, January 2.—Three hundred Ashantes were drowned in an En Pira while plying from Sir Garnet Wolsey.

Bullion in the Bank of England increased nearly half a million.
Evans, Proprietor of the London Home, is dead.

Stables Burnt.
COLUMBIA, Pa., Jan. 2.—McGinnis' stables were burnt and 25 horses were lost. The fire is attributed to an incendary.

Another Defalcation.
CONCORD, N. H., Jan. 2.—The account of the treasurer of the Concord National Savings Bank is short. He confesses to a deficit of $60,000.

Opera House Burned.
WILKESBARRE, Pa., Jan. 2.—The Opera House has been burnt. The loss is $40,000.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.
FROM WASHINGTON.

Matters Pertaining to the Virginia Insurgency—The Edgar Stewart and the Tornado—Claims to satisfy—Arrival of the Franklin at Key West—Debt Statement—Southern Claims Commission.

WASHINGTON, January 2.—No official information has been received confirmatory of the report from Madrid respecting the immunity to be demanded by the Spanish Government in the case of the Virginia, nor is it probable that any such claim will be presented, the adjustment of the questions involved having been arranged by the protocol of the two countries. It is, however, time a bill of damages should be presented, payment would, there is ground for stating, be refused on the principle established by the Geneva tribunal in the disallowance of indirect or consequential damages. Therefore, it can certainly be stated that Spain will not receive any money whatever, growing out of the transactions in connection with the Virginia, even if that vessel had reached its destination, and been sold by the United States in violation of law. The preparation of the Virginia correspondence will be completed to-morrow, and may be sent to Congress Monday next. It is represented as being unimpeachable. Speaking to-day of the intelligence from Havana that the Tornado had left port and it was generally stated she had received orders to pursue the Edgar Stewart, and if she proved to be the same character as the Virginia, sink her, a gentleman, high in official position, said the ignorance, or want of correct information on the part of Spanish officers, was never more apparent than in this instance, as it was known that the Edgar Stewart is still at Baltimore with no immediate prospect of leaving for any port of destination.

An appropriation by Congress of nearly two million dollars in gold will be required in satisfaction of the claims allowed by the late United States and British Commission.

The Secretary of the Navy this evening received a telegram from Rear Admiral Scott, at Key West, announcing the arrival of the steamship Franklin at that port, which, it was recollected, was recently reported as lost with all on board.

The President has recognized Adolphe Philibert Try as Consul of France at Charleston.

The debt statement of this date shows an increase of the public debt, during December, of $8,435,272, an increase since June 30, 1873, of $11,496,- 612. Currency in Treasury $4,277,- 851. Coin $91,400. Coin certificates $97,543,300. Outstanding legal tenders $378,401,702.

The Southern Claims Commission, to which it is proposed to refer all war claims pending before the Quartermaster General and the War Department, has now before it claims to the amount of $22,000,000. The average amount thus far awarded by this Commission is about thirteen percent of the sums claimed.

Last year only six hundred thousand dollars were allowed in claims in which five millions were claimed.
The term of the Commission was extended by the last Congress for four years.

Weather Probabilities.
WASHINGTON, January 2.—For the Gulf States and northward to Tennessee, light southerly to southwest, clearing weather, except possibly light rain in Eastern Tennessee. The temperature will continue above freezing in the districts East of the Mississippi river.

VOL. III.
RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY MORNING, JANUARY 3, 1874.
NO. 102.

Jordan, Marsh & Co.
Boston, Jan. 2.—Judge Lowell, of the United States District Court, has ordered that only such of the books seized from Jordan, Marsh & Co. are to be examined and returned by the Collector of Customs and officers appointed by him to inspect the same as related to the charges in the complaint on file, excepting the books and papers seized may be examined so far as may be necessary to ascertain whether or not they relate to said charges, and in the last examination Jordan, Marsh & Co. have leave to attend the examination by an attorney at law of this Court, to be appointed and paid by them; the United States to be represented in the same manner.

Effect of the Railroad Strike at Philadelphia.
PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 2.—Though no strike has occurred here by the Pennsylvania Railroad employees as yet, the transportation of freight west is greatly impeded by the blockade of the roads in the Western States owing to the strike. Trains of empty cars are being dispatched from west for points beyond Pittsburg, but no loaded cars are leaving, and the train hands are now only working on half time. Passenger trains are leaving regularly, as are also the usual freight trains for Pittsburg and intermediate points.

Continuation of the Railroad Strike.
COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 2.—The striking engineers still hold out. Not withstanding that the strike is breaking at other points the real trouble here now is that the engineers know that certain ring-leaders will not be taken back into the employment of the company, and so they must stick together, hoping to enforce the employment of even of the leaders. The railroad authorities have given notice that all who want their engines had better apply at once. The running of all regular passenger trains has been transferred to the excitement to the freight depot, but no outbreak has occurred.

A Man Murdered in a Drunken Brawl.
ST. LOUIS, Jan. 2.—Two unknown drunken men, strangers to each other, quarreled in the street last night, when one knocked the other down and plunged a knife through his forehead, breaking the blade and leaving part of it in the man's brain.
When the police arrived the wounded man was dead. The murderer escaped.

Horrible Accident in a Sugar Refinery.
NEW YORK, January 2.—Randolph Pollock, while adjusting a belt in a sugar refinery Jersey City this morning, was caught by the belt and drawn into the machinery and his arm and leg torn from the sockets. He died in five minutes.

THE DAILY NEWS.

JORDAN STONE, Managing Editor.
SAMPSON WILLIAMS, Political Editor.
SATURDAY, JANUARY 3, 1874.

EDITORIAL JOTTINGS.

The Norfolk Landmark observed the New Year by suspending an issue.

"Here we are again," is the way a Richmond local commences his New Year article.

The Petersburg Daily News says that North Carolina is at present the ablest represented in the United States Senate of any of her Southern sisters.

A handsome woman has been lecturing in New York on the subject of kissing. She is said to have made a most favorable impression.

Washington City is becoming a Gretna Green for the young people of Virginia—seven couples from the centre of Virginia were united in the holy bonds of wedlock in that city last Friday.

Washington City has grown exceedingly temperate, now that the White House or at the houses of the Cabinet officers New Year's day. Who will say that the temperance is not spreading. We wonder if Grant discarded his Havana on that day?

JOSH JAMES, of the Wilmington Journal, thus puts it: "Quite a number of young men in this city are attending a night school where Latin is taught. At least we judge so, as we saw a crowd the other evening who had got as far as 'hic'."

We suppose they skipped the "huc" and went heavy for the "hock."

Now that the Virginia Legislature is in session, the question of the election of a U. S. Senator has become quite warm. Quite a number of persons are expected to occupy the seat now unworthily filled by LEWIS, but among the list of names brought forward, it is impossible to surmise the fortunate individual.

The first of January has been a summons to all to settle up the accounts of the past year, and a little money will now be made to go a long way by the continued round that will be given to every dollar, passing from hand to hand until hundreds of claims shall be paid with the same dollar.

The General Assembly of Virginia met in Richmond on Thursday. The Senate consists of 43 members, of which 34 are Conservatives and nine Republicans, two of the latter colored. The House consists of 131 members, of which 98 are Conservatives, and 32 Republicans, 17 of the latter being colored. The Conservative majority on joint ballot is 89.

The New York Times does not seem to be kindly disposed towards the Virginians. It thus writes her epitaph: "Blockade runner, filibuster, and bearer of a fraudulent register, her history begins and ends with deceit and violence. The blood of the men murdered at Santiago de Cuba would have clung to her name and her record even under a new registry and a more creditable occupation."

The Mother of States.

Virginians have just cause of pride in the happy political condition in which the Mother of States to-day finds herself. But a few years ago, like her unfortunate Southern sisters, she was trodden down beneath the ruthless and despotic heel of miscreants and tyrants, and was but a football in the hands of those who did not know and did not care for the real wants of her people, but who only sought to pander to the tastes of a misguided race, and backed by the power of the Federal Government itself, plundered the State Treasury, impoverished and degraded the sons and daughters of Virginia, retarded every interest of the State, and prevented her sons from building up the waste places made desolate by the ruthless hand of war which had swept over her fair territory. But this state of things so aroused the noble sons of this noble State that in 1869, by a mighty effort, they threw off this incubus upon their State's prosperity, declared themselves to be freemen, and by a wise movement placed the administration of affairs in the hands of honest men. On the first of January, 1870, GILBERT C. WALKER was placed in the gubernatorial chair, and an honest Legislature met in the city of Richmond.

On Wednesday last Gov. WALKER's term of office expired, and Gen. KEMPER, the newly elected Governor of Virginia. Gov. WALKER was a most efficient, faithful and popular officer. Although a Northern man, moving into Virginia since the war, he has had the best interest of Virginia at heart; has acted well and wisely; has endeared himself to the people of Virginia; has added greatly to the prosperity of the State to her material welfare; has given the people a thorough confidence in their State Government, and he goes out of office carrying with him the good-will of every Virginian. The Richmond Enquirer says of him:

"And now, as Governor Walker retires from office let the people who elected him ask and answer: Has he fulfilled his promise? Has he done his duty? Has he carried out fully, fairly and frankly the policy of the Conservative party? There must be one, and but one, response, and in that is the unqualified and emphatic utterance, Well done, good and faithful servant."

In the exchange Thursday from WALKER to KEMPER, Virginia once more obtains a Governor from her own soil, a gentleman possessing much talent and noted for his honesty of principles, and who, as a soldier, as a patriot and as a statesman, has a hold upon the hearts of the citizens of Virginia, and whose administration that State may expect to continue the rapid strides in the onward march of prosperity which has marked her course since she came into the hands of the Walker government. God speed the day when this Mother of States shall only know of her once despoiled condition by the traditional past, and when her sons and daughters shall have regained that prosperity which was their wont before her bosom was torn asunder by the shock of war and her people thus deprived of the labors of a century.

"Look Now Upon This Picture and on That."

If the sentence of the law was carried into effect, yesterday, JOSEPH BAKER, a white man, was hanged in Charlotte for the murder of a colored man. Fairly tried by a jury of white men, he was justly convicted, and in obedience to the stern decree of the law, was justly condemned to die. The homicide succeeded a bar-room quarrel, and perhaps in those States where there are degrees in murder, would have been found by the jury to have been murder in the second degree, and the life of the doomed man would have been saved.

To-day there is in the county jail of Wake, a white man, from Johnston county, under sentence of death for the murder of an old, friendless negro. He was prosecuted by the Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee, tried by a jury composed equally of blacks and whites, convicted and sentenced.

We have only praise for the juries who thus did their duty under trying circumstances, and not one word to say in mitigation of the offences of these criminals.

There is another prisoner in the jail of Wake, whom we have seen from time to time in the Court House square, hitching mules, sweeping the square, etc., and seemingly acting as a jail attendant. This is LEE DUNLAP, a negro, who has been convicted of the murder of JAMES GLEASON, a respectable citizen of Charlotte, and who obtained a new trial by the marvellous stupidity of the Judge presiding. The same Judge did not err when he tried BAKER. The murder of GLEASON was committed in the presence of the Mayor of Charlotte, then holding Court, under circumstances of peculiar atrocity. Before DUNLAP could be tried again, the Supreme Court of North Carolina, in an opinion, to say the least of it, which startled the profession, decided that he could remove his case to the Circuit Court of the United States. Thus was the Court swift to yield up the sovereignty of the State, in part committed into their hands, to whoever encroaching federal power.

JUDGE BROOKS, however, more faithful to his State than his own judiciary, did not agree with the Court, and the case of DUNLAP, upon a disagreement between Judges Brooks and BOND, was taken to the Supreme Court of the United States. The order not being a final one, the appeal was dismissed, and the case remanded. It now hangs like Mahomet's coffin, between the two jurisdictions, and if tried by either, the trial will perhaps amount to a nullity—for even the consent of DUNLAP cannot give jurisdiction to the Federal Court, if it does not by law possess it. In the meantime, while the white man from Johnston is ironed (as he should be), DUNLAP assists in policing the Courthouse square and other like duties.

Verily, the negroes of North Carolina need ask for no more "rights," until white men receive the same privileges which the radicals of this racial-ridden Commonwealth are swift to extend to the blacks. A white man kills a negro and is justly hung; a negro murders a white man, and is given partial liberty!

Thank God! LOGAN retires from the Bench he has degraded, after the next election. White men of North Carolina, you have seen what your brethren in Virginia did; you have seen the movement in the great North West; you have heard the thunder of Ohio and New York. Will you alone continue to wear the shackles of the most corrupt domination that ever cursed a people? If you again permit it, you deserve your ruin; you merit your shame. You deserve to feel that if your best friend is murdered by a negro assassin, the murderer will be allowed to go unwhipped of justice.

P. S.—Since the above was placed in type, we learn that the Governor has resented BAKER until the 16th inst., the respite going to Charlotte yesterday by telegraph.

The Petersburg Index-Appeal. The Index-Appeal of Thursday announces the withdrawal of the Senior Editor, Major A. B. VENABLE, from that paper, he having sold his interest to Messrs. GREGORY & PATTERSON, and the editorial management having fallen upon the shoulders of Mr. GREGORY. Major VENABLE was a bold and forcible writer, and we regret to see his departure from so staunch and popular a journal as the Index-Appeal has proven itself to be, but in the hands of Mr. GREGORY we are confident it will sustain the reputation it has so deservedly won.

It is gravely related in China that at the audience given by the Emperor or "the ambassadors" were so overwhelmed by the augustness of His Imperial Majesty that not one of them could speak a word, and most of them had to be led out in a fainting condition.
